

Regardsing the CW controversy for amateur radio license examinations, I concur with the above named petition. The cw portion shold be retained as an integral part of the licensing process. It provides an ideal mode for low power, emergency communications and keeps the cw proficient operator as an asset to our radio service and domestic communications stand-by pool of radio operators. Retain the cw requirements.

Thanks,

Mike Williams